

National Get Outdoors Day Hike!

Celebrate National Get Outdoors Day on the CDT!

Saturday, June 12th at 12pm

National Get Outdoors Day, celebrated across the country, is a day to get outside and steward local trails. We're joining the celebration with a community hike on the Continental Divide Trail on Saturday, June 12th.

Join Leadville and Twin Lake's Continental Divide Trail Gateway Community Ambassador and Volunteers to steward and enjoy local trails!

WHERE:

Meet at the Get Outdoors Leadville! Gear Library on the Colorado Mountain College campus (901 US-24, Leadville). From here we will caravan to the Bartlett Gulch trailhead. The hike is a gentle uphill and 4 miles round-trip.

WHEN: Saturday, June 12th at 12pm

WHAT TO BRING:

Dress for hiking and bring water, snacks, and sunscreen. If you need to borrow any items (backpacks, hiking shoes, etc.) you can do so at the GOL! Gear Library. If you know what gear you might need ahead of time, text or call 719.297.1769.

Contact han.guilford@gmail.com or 313.657.8659 for questions.

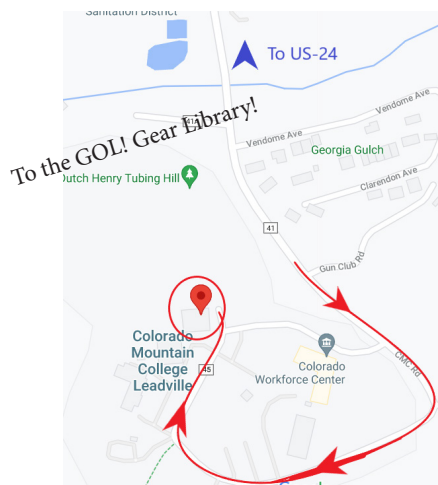

Use this QR Code to join the Facebook event and find more information!

(<https://fb.me/e/2jWuBXdlm>)

Use this QR Code to register! Registration is encouraged but not required.

CDT SWAG AND FREE BOOT BRUSHES!

Anyone who takes part in the National Get Outdoors Day community hike will have the opportunity to win CDT swag including hiking socks and stickers! You'll also receive a free boot brush to keep your boots clean and prevent the spread of invasive species across the West.

Find out more about the Continental Divide Trail at: continentaldividetrail.org