Welcome to The Center at Lake County Elementary School! It's December! (: This month we will be focusing on social emotional. Talking about different feelings, how each feeling makes our bodies feel, and how to calm down all by ourselves after having new feelings. December is such a wonderful month to express love to all our special ones. Every day we achieve to show this toward all of our friends! Many relationships building that with time will keep growing! Also please bring snow clothes for those snowy days, it's also super helpful for things to be labeled to prevent them from getting lost! And like always, if there are any special traditions in your family that you would like to share with us please do, we'd love to know about it! (:

OUR LEARNING

For this month we will be focusing on growing our confidence and building stronger and different relationships. Preschool allows us to explore in so many different ways.

HOME CONNECTION

To connect school and home let's talk about all different kinds of feelings and how each of our feelings feel! Ask them what new feelings they've learned from being in school. (:
