

The 10th
Mountain
Division
War

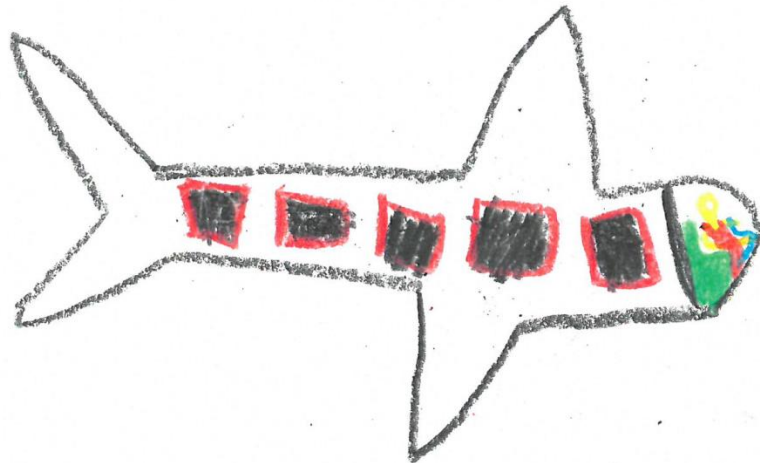

By Destiny
Jade Hogard

IN 1941, Earl Eaton, Was born in Colorado, and began Skiing at a young age. Eaton Skiers at Glenwood Springs.

In 1944, of June the Division transferred to camp Swift Texas, for additional training until the Division was deployed.

At the end of 1944, the 10th
Division was finally sent off to war.

In 1945, the 10th Mountain
Division decided to climb a 1500 foot cliff on Giva Ridge.

In 1955, Pete Seibert opened the Loveland Ski Area to skiers.

